July 17.

My dear Sister (Jus sue). I can't but think you will be able to come in Sat.
Mother's arm would be likely to become more sore until all the soreness is removed. I should think. It is the way with common black & blue spots. I send Love with a little reminder of the day which gave us
us so true a blessing.

All blessings on it
(the day) & you -

M. & Mrs. Manning
left as this P.M. for home. They went to the O.S. this Am. & if everybody as much enjoyed the station there as they - I should not think I had lived altogether in vain.

Always Your loving

A -
With love to Mother
